Peggy Nunley is a fierce, Jesus-loving Southern girl with a story only God could write.

Her life can be summed up in one word—miracle.

From surviving sexual abuse and foster care to enduring a parent in prison and her father's suicide, Peggy's journey is one against all odds.

Where the enemy sought to destroy her, Jesus stepped in and rewrote her story. Now, she carries the message of freedom from the very places where God healed her deepest wounds.

From preaching in packed stadiums to walking through slum communities for the one, Peggy's mission is clear: to proclaim the unstoppable, chain-breaking power of Jesus.

She has traveled to over 40 nations, led thousands to faith, trekked among the world's most unreached, launched an army of young fiery evangelists, and ignited revolutionary movements of women in mission and spearheaded high-impact medical missions.

For Peggy, the Great Commission isn't a suggestion—it's a mandate. She carries it like fire in her bones, calling the Church to rise, go, and usher in the return of Christ.

A wife, a mother of four, Author, International speaker and the President of Awe Star Missions, Peggy lives with one mission: to shake the nations for the glory of Jesus.
